

Because trust is everything

SECURITY IS WHY YOU CALL IT “HOME.”

Basic coverage in a Travelers home insurance policy.

- Your home and other buildings on your property.
- The contents of your home.
- Additional living expenses if you have to move out during certain repairs.
- Liability protection for you and your household, protecting you if someone is accidentally injured or their property is damaged.

Access to valuation technologies.

Travelers has tools to help you estimate the replacement value of your property. This helps you select the amount of insurance for your home, enough to rebuild it at today's rates if it were damaged. Your agent can help you protect the things you value most.

Optional protection for special concerns.

Additional replacement cost protection can provide an additional 25% or 50% of your home's dwelling limit to rebuild after a covered loss. Replacement cost contents coverage can pay to repair or replace covered contents in your home, regardless of depreciation. Identity fraud protection can reimburse for expenses incurred to regain your identity. Includes identity restoration services.

Trust us to help you find savings.

You may qualify for special savings like:

- Loss-free discount, for having no claims.
- Protective-Device discount if your home has protective features like smoke alarms or fire extinguishers
- Multi-policy discount for insuring your home, car and other policies with Travelers.

We work hard to make things easier for you.

You can pay your bill the way you prefer: by check, electronically (via credit card, checking account or savings account), by phone or online. You can also view products and get valuable insurance tips at travelers.com.

Through the years,
people know we come through. Just ask your independent agent.

We're fast, fair and ready to help.

With our size, scale and financial strength, we continually invest in our own dedicated, talented staff and give them the resources they need to deliver high-quality service and to handle claims quickly.

We use advanced geospatial technology to proactively monitor weather and naturally occurring or man-made events to help position resources to better respond to customers' needs. And if a catastrophe strikes, more than 30,000 Travelers employees are available to support our response effort.

Just call 800.CLAIM33 (800.252.4633) day or night to report a claim.

Talk to your agent. Let your peace of mind soar.

Independent agents represent many companies, to help make sure their clients get quality coverage at an affordable price.

As the world of insurance grows more complex, your agent's knowledge can help make your choices clear and simple. Staying ahead of change is our business, from offering discounts for hybrid vehicles to pioneering identity fraud protection. We've felt that way since we wrote the first auto insurance policy. If it's going to affect your world, we want to help make sure you're prepared.

Home should always mean peace of mind.

But what about storms, accidents and surprise liabilities? You can't trust that nature – or other people – won't crash in.

When you need to get things back to normal ASAP, count on people who've seen the worst of it, in more ways than one family can imagine. People who know the ins and outs of getting fast action. That's when you appreciate your trust in your independent agent and Travelers.

With Travelers' experience and your agent's first-hand knowledge, you can craft a comprehensive policy to help meet your needs. So you're better prepared for the worst.
